Bosque was arrested and confined in the Humboldt Co. jail but made his escape before his trial came off. A reward of $2,000 dollars was offered for his arrest but he kept dark until he reached here. It is said he has one or two brothers in San Francisco quite wealthy.

The Late D. H. Howser.

A few days ago the announcement was made in these columns that Mr. Howser, who had been shot through the lungs during the Indian fight of the 5th of July, had died from the effects. In a recent issue of the Marysville (Cal.) Appeal, we find the following sketch:

At Mount Idaho (I. T.) on July 17th, 1877, Duncan Hamilton Howser, aged 45, years, a native of Cooper county, Mo. He came overland to California in 1849, and lived in Yuba county from 1850 to 1865, when he went to Idaho Territory, where he continued to reside till his death. He was with the brave Capt Randall, being one of the 17 volunteers, who on the 5th of last month fought 100 of Chief Joseph's band on Clear creek I. T., for one hour, at which Capt. Randall and two others lost their lives, and Howser and two others were wounded. At the time of the fight they were in sight of Col. Perry's camp, and had fired their guns, Spencer's improved rifles, till the barrels were so hot they could not be handled, and about 800 shots were fired during the battle, by the whites, and it is claimed by survivors of the gallant 17 that 35 Nez Perces were slain, and the balance driven from the ground. The killed and wounded were taken into Col. Perry's camp. Mr. Howser was well known in this city and Yuba county; was a early settler on Bear river, near Johnston's ranch, and afterwards resided at Brown's valley. He leaves a mother, one sister (Mrs. M. E. Morris) and two brothers in this city, and a brother in Sutter county, one in Oregon and one in Missouri, and a sister (Mrs. F. J. Synder) in Contra Costa county, Cal. Thus another Yuba county pioneer has gone to that bourne from whence no traveler returns, and many eyes will moisten while reading this notice of the death of one with whom they had spent many pleasant times in the early days of pioneer life in Yuba county.—Oregonian

Two Men Drowned

From the Astorian we take the following particulars concerning the drowning of two men down the river: "Last Thursday evening, between 5 and 6 o'clock a fishing boat left Astoria for Chinook, carrying six persons—Messrs. Fred. Woodham, of this city, Henry Pierce, William Devins, Joseph Bertrand, Col. H. K. Stevens and Fowles. They had proceeded about half way across the bay when the weather began to be pretty rough, and the sail slipped out of the hand of Fowles, who was steering the boat, and in getting the sails back again, through bad steering, the boat capsize. A woman saw the boat from the territory shore and gave the alarm, when Eben Pietit manned a boat and immediately started for the rescue of the party, but the wind was then blowing a gale and the tide was against them, so that it was nearly three hours before the unfortunate men were reached. Fowles drowned in a few minutes after the boat upset and Mr. Stevens hung on for an hour, then he was drowned. This left Messrs. Pierce, Woodham, Devins and Bertrand clinging to the boat still bottom up, and in almost exhausted condition when they were picked up and taken to Chinook. Mr. Woodham returned to Astoria on Sunday. From a letter we received from Mr. Bertrand we gain the principal points of their rescue. Mr. Bertrand says that Fowles was intoxicated and would not let one of the sober men of the party touch the helm. We believe Mr. Fowles was a single man; Mr. Stevens leaves a wife and two children in this city. He was pioneer of Chinook, but for several years past, up to very recently, has resided in Oysterville."—Oregonian

Hunting Indians.

Mr. Wm. M. Turner, formerly of Jacksonville, Oregon, special Indian agent, now acting in concert with Major Rhinehart, agent of the Malheur reservation, arrived at Boise City on Thursday, the 23d inst. Mr. Turner left the Malheur agency a few days ago, accompanied by chief Egan for the purpose of hunting up the Indians belonging to that reservation who are now scattered among the settlements in Idaho, and causing them to return to the reservation. Major Rhinehart and Mr. Turner are, says the Statesman, both determined that these Indians shall no longer prove a cause of annoyance to the settlers. On the Weiser there are a few Indians belonging to Malheur reservation who have been seen and instructed to return home. A small band of Indians under Eagle Eye have been informed that if they will go to the Malheur agency they will be received and some provisions made for them, though they are not among the Indians of whom Major Rhinehart has charge. Mr. Turner has gone to see Winnemucca and his band who are somewhere near Silver City. No danger or trouble is apprehended from the presence of these Indians, but it is better for both whites and Indians that the latter should be kept upon reservations and under the supervision of their agents. For their efforts in this direction the two gentlemen mentioned are deserving of much praise and should meet with the hearty co operation of citizens.—Oregonian.
